<td>Bob Dick</td>
<td>Associate Professor Bob Dick is an independent scholar, an occasional academic, and a consultant in the fields of community and organisational change. He uses action research and action learning to help others (and himself) improve their practice. http://uqconnect.net/action_research/arhome.html Independent scholar; bd@bigpond.net.au</td>

<tr>
<td>Susan Goff</td>
<td>Susan Goff is a participatory systems facilitator, co-designing and facilitating participatory forms of inquiry to support social and organisational change to redress significant threats to social and environmental sustainability. Since 1991, Susan has run her own consultancy, specialising in participatory action research, action learning and participatory evaluation in service to sustainability issues such as community safety, family violence prevention, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander self-determination, first world poverty, carbon reduction, and sustainability. Being a Social Ecologist (Masters App Sci) Dr Groff uses this framework in her theorising and practice. Working across domains she believes that participatory knowledge and praxis co-production is the principle means by which humanity can fundamentally save itself. See: susan.g@cultureshift.com.au Susan has been a returning Visiting Fellow to the Social and Organisational Learning and Action Research Centre at the University of West England, has just stepped down from four years as President of the Action Learning and Action Research Association, and is currently serving as the Association’s Managing Editor. Susan is committed to the two moral obligations of Aboriginal de-colonisation and surviving climate change as fundamental to socio-ecological sustainability in our times. Susan agrees with Lewin’s claim, that there is nothing more practical than a good theory. Visit her website: www.cultureshift.com.au</td>

Charles Mercieca

President of the International Association of Educators for World Peace an NGO accredited by the UN. mercieca@knology.net

Iona Miller

Artificer, researcher and Author. USA iona_ms@yahoo.com Hypnotherapist, Iona Miller is a researcher, filmmaker, and popular writer in future science, investigative science, intelligence and esoterics. She analyses the collective psyche and cultural effects of geopolitics, religion, science, art and psychology. She fuses wedging and culture jamming into documentary and art films. The ‘spy-whisperer’ has appeared in Nexus and Paranoia, authored several books and international publications. A futurist, analyst, and consultant, specialties of this ‘Meta Hari’ include social engineering, pop culture, pop physics and psychology, media ecology, psi research, esoteric espionage, New Age critique, cults, PSYOPS, mind control countermeasures, creativity, mind-body, well-being, and extraordinary human capacities. In an arena in which it is nearly impossible to unravel ‘the truth,’ rather than being interested in un-provable minutiae or untraceable connections, she analyses general trends visible to all with a startling, unique viewpoint.

Cameron Neil

Consultant, and co-founder of Brisbane Hot Futures Group cameronneil@iypf.org, organiser and activist with particular focus on youth praxis and fair trade. Entrepreneur and strategist, interested in building (or tweaking) markets, institutions and networks to achieve more good for people and planet.

Jim Prentice

Dr Jim Prentice – co-editor of this eZine, Independent Scholar, sociologist and historian. Community worker in social and political campaigns in the public sphere, Jim has worked in grass roots organizations over most of his adult life. Currently teaching at Griffith University in Australian Identity and Culture and in Post –War social movements, his specialty is public and social life and the many ways people find to exert their needs This is despite a decline in their interactions with formal democratic practices, and their distance from the cultural norms of politics and from its interest-narrowed outputs. His work is published in Queensland Review and he has given several conference papers and many talks to conferences celebrating and understanding resistive practices. jimprentice@optusnet.com.au

Annie Richards

Anne Richards is an Adjunct Research Fellow with Griffith University. My work covers a wide range of writing and research interests including Contemporary Publishing, History of Newspapers, Communication, Journalism, News and Politics, Australian Literature, Cultural Studies and Cultural Policy. I am passionate about creative thinking and the world of ideas and practical ways of helping the world. She is committed to lifelong learning, hopefully never to retire – dreary thought. The best is around that corner which then always leads to another corner. anne.richards@griffith.edu.au
With more than 20 years working in community and organisational development roles, integral evolution founder, Daryl Taylor, has had significant ‘whole systems’ coherent partnerships facilitation and complex project leadership experience. Daryl’s participatory planning, anticipatory action research, and organisational and community development work has been formally acknowledged with seven state and national innovation and best practice awards and commendations. His practice features prominently in VicHealth’s Local Government Good Practice Resource ‘Leading the Way’ taylor.daryl@yahoo.com.au

Dr Paul Wildman has a long background in praxis and futures so CRAFT is a ‘natural’. He has published over a hundred books, CD’s and articles on Futures and in particular a form of practical futuring he calls Futuring or CRAFT arenas inc. building his boat (as assistant) as proof positive of the lived life of an artificer. As an academic he developed the world’s first online Masters speciality in Futures Studies. Further he concretises this Futuring even further into the Artificer or more commonly known as ‘Australian Bush Mechanic’. This has been carried through into his business, which he runs with his wife, in the ‘Kids in Active Learning’ play based program. Magazine Involvement
Please list any magazines which you currently edit:
Action Research Case Studies inc. Newsletter (Published jointly by ALARPM (Action Learning, Action Research and Process Management Association) Interchange Publications (Aust.) and Prosperity Press (Aust.). I am the principal of Prosperity Press.

Please list any magazine/magazines on whose Editorial Advisory Boards you have served:
I have edited/critiqued several book chapters, articles in association with the Magazines:

Action Research Case Studies (Monograph Series) - ongoing Publications: Several CD-Rom’s, and 60 Books/Chapters/Conference Workshops and Proceedings — please see Appendix A in this regard.

Publishing Experience: I have operated a small niche market mail order publishing business, Prosperity Press, for five years. Prosperity Press specialises in Experiential Learning and Animation and Economic Development. Several titles are listed in Appendix A.

Web Experience: I have gained substantial experience in this area through designing, mounting, operating and housekeeping several web sites, compiling four CD-Rom’s, and lecturing on the web at Masters Level. A key area of expertise (both message and medium) draws from my involvement in the design, mounting and delivery of the SCU Masters Unit ED730 Futures Studies: Methods, Issues and Visions (1996-7). The first completely web mounted Masters unit to be offered by Southern Cross University. The overall program involved a hyper-archiving bulletin board, Public assess Futures Forum with hyperlinks to Futures sites around the world and password protected interactive web courseware for ED730 itself.
